Attorney for Defendant, FEDERAL EXPRESS
CORPORATION

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF NEVADA

WENDY BUTENSKY, an individual,

Plaintiff,

v.

FEDERAL EXPRESS CORPORATION, a
Delaware corporation,

Defendant.

Case No. 2:16-cv-01718-JCM-VCF

JOINT STIPULATION TO CONTINUE THE TRIAL AND ALL TRIAL RELATED DATES; AND ORDER THEREON

[FIRST REQUEST FOR EXTENSION]

Complaint Filed: July 20, 2016
Calendar Call: March 4, 2020
Trial Date: March 9, 2020

Pursuant to Local Rules IA 6-2, 7-1, and 26-4, the parties, by and through their respective counsel of record, hereby stipulate and request that this Court continue the trial and all trial related dates for approximately 45 days so the parties can attend mediation and attempt to resolve this case before having to incur additional attorney's fees and costs preparing pre-trial papers such as motions in limine. In support of this Joint Stipulation and Request, the parties agree and stipulate as follows:

1. The trial is currently scheduled to begin March 9, 2020;
2. Motions in limine are presently due February 7, 2020;
3. The parties are attending an all-day Mediation before the Honorable Bill Hoffman (Ret.) at JAMS on February 4, 2020;
4. If the case does not settle, FedEx is deposing Plaintiff the next day, February 5, 2020, for no more than three hours regarding her alleged damages and efforts to mitigate her damages;
5. The deposition transcript, if necessary, will not be available for at least two weeks, just days before the trial is set to begin;
6. The week of March 9, 2020 poses a problem to FedEx due to the press of business that week because of various conventions in Las Vegas. Having several FedEx employees miss work to prepare to testify at trial and testify at trial would pose an undue hardship and disruption of FedEx's business;
7. Moreover, the parties would rather not incur additional attorney's fees and costs to prepare and file various pre-trial papers (motions in limine, etc.) before attending Mediation on February 4, 2020, because such attorney's fees and costs could be used toward resolving the case;
8. Continuing the trial and all trial related dates for approximately 45 days, until the last week of April or the first week of May 2020, will not prejudice the parties or their counsel and should not unduly inconvenience the Court;
9. Continuing the trial and all trial related dates will give the parties the best chance to resolve this case before trial;
10. The parties agree and have stipulated, by and through their respective counsel of record, that for the reasons set forth above, the trial and all trial related dates should be continued for approximately 45 days, and the trial be continued to the last week of April (April 27, 2020), or the first week of May (May 4, 2020); and

11. The parties believe good cause exists, and the interests of justice will be served, if the trial and all trial related dates are continued for approximately 45 days, to the last week of April or the first week of May 2020.
